Facts

8. MHC is the financial services subsidiary of the Murphy Hoffman Company, Inc., a full service truck dealership network with its principal place of business in Leawood, Kansas.

9. Trading accounts receivable is common in the trucking industry. MHC engages in this trade, generally known as factoring. Factoring allows a seller to change accounts receivable into money to meet cash flow requirements.

10. Upon purchasing an account receivable from another company, MHC collects the amount due on the purchased account directly from the account debtor.

11. Amazon Logistics is a freight brokerage company and hires trucking companies to transport its brokered freight across the country.

12. In this case, Amazon Logistics hired two trucking companies – M&J Logistics and RSA – to transport its brokered freight. MHC purchased the invoices, also known as account receivables, from M&J and RSA, which reflect the amounts Amazon Logistics owes to M&J and RSA for brokering its freight. MHC now has the right to collect the account receivables directly from Amazon Logistics.

M&J Logistics

13. On a number of occasions, Amazon Logistics hired the over-the-road trucking company Jose Ramos DBA M&J Logistics ("M&J") to transport its freight.

14. The agreement of Amazon Logistics to pay M&J to transport its freight and the agreement of M&J to transport Amazon Logistics freight for money was a legally binding contract supported by consideration.

15. On May 8, 2019, MHC purchased and M&J agreed to sell and assign its accounts receivable to MHC (the "Factoring Agreement"). The Factoring Agreement included all present and future accounts receivable owed to M&J by Amazon Logistics. A true and correct copy of the factoring agreement is attached and incorporated as Exhibit A.

16. On May 21, 2019, MHC's Account Manager sent Amazon Logistics a "Notice of Assignment" (the "Notice") via email bearing MHC's logo. The Notice provides M&J

> [H]as assigned all if its current and future accounts receivable and the proceeds thereof to Purchaser. Accordingly, Purchaser now owns ALL of . . . carrier's accounts receivable and has the sole and exclusive right to collect and retain the same. The amount due or to become due under each such account has been assigned and payment is to be made to Purchaser. Please be advised that ALL such invoices (past, present and future) must be paid directly to Purchaser as indicated. . ."

A true and accurate copy of the Notice is attached and incorporated as Exhibit B (emphasis in original).

17. The Notice also provides "Payment to the carrier or any other party will not discharge or relieve you of your obligation to pay Purchaser following your receipt of this notice." Exhibit D (emphasis in original).

18. The Notice identified the carrier, M&J Logistics, the date of assignment, and payment of instructions. Exhibit B.

19. After May 21, 2019, the date Amazon Logistics received the Notice, Amazon Logistics could only discharge its obligation to pay the M&J accounts receivable by paying MHC.

20. Upon information and belief, following receipt of the Notice, Amazon continued to pay M&J directly, rather than MHC as required by the Notice.

RSA Industries LLC

21. Amazon Logistics hired the over-the-road trucking company RSA Industries LLC ("RSA") to transport its freight on a number of occasions.

22. The agreement of Amazon Logistics to pay RSA to transport its freight and the agreement of RSA to transport Amazon Logistics freight for money was a legally binding contract supported by consideration.

23. On April 24, 2019, MHC purchased and RSA agreed to sell and assign its accounts receivable to MHC (the "Factoring Agreement"). The Factoring Agreement included all present and future accounts receivable owed to RSA by Amazon Logistics. A true and correct copy of the factoring agreement is attached and incorporated as Exhibit C.

24. The Notice provides RSA

> [H]as assigned all if its current and future accounts receivable and the proceeds thereof to Purchaser. Accordingly, Purchaser now owns ALL of . . . carrier's accounts receivable and has the sole and exclusive right to collect and retain the same. The amount due or to become due under each such account has been assigned and payment is to be made to Purchaser. Please be advised that ALL such invoices (past, present and future) must be paid directly to Purchaser as indicated. . ."

A true and accurate copy of the Notice is attached and incorporated as Exhibit D (emphasis in original).

25. The Notice also provides "Payment to the carrier or any other party will not discharge or relieve you of your obligation to pay Purchaser following your receipt of this notice." Exhibit D (emphasis in original).

28. Upon information and belief, following receipt of the Notice, Amazon continued to pay RSA directly, rather than MHC as required by the Notice.

Verification Process

29. Before purchasing an Amazon Logistics account receivable from M&J or RSA, MHC verified each account receivable through Amazon Logistics' web portal.

30. After MHC entered into the Agreements with M&J and RSA to purchase their accounts receivable, MHC set up an account with Amazon Logistics web portal (the "Portal").

31. Upon information and belief, the Portal is an online resource maintained and controlled by Amazon Logistics that provides users with information regarding accounts receivable including the agreed-upon rate, the details of the shipment and verification of the completion of services.

32. Upon information and belief, the information contained in the Portal regarding each account receivable is entered and/or approved by Amazon Logistics.

33. Using the Portal, MHC confirmed each account receivable remaining due and owing by Amazon Logistics and was actually completed by M&J or RSA.

34. Upon successful verification of the account receivable, MHC would purchase the account receivable from M&J and RSA and collect the full amount from Amazon Logistics, the account debtor.

35. Using the Portal, MHC successfully verified each account receivable tendered to it by M&J and RSA prior to purchase.

Factoring for M&J

36. MHC first factored an Amazon Logistics load for M&J on May 21, 2019.

37. Each time M&J sent MHC an Amazon Logistics an account receivable to purchase, MHC logged in to the Portal, using the process described above, to verify it was actually due and payable by the account debtor, Amazon Logistics.

38. Amazon Logistics first remitted payment directly to MHC for M&J accounts on May 24, 2019.

39. Since that time, Amazon Logistics has failed to pay MHC for some of the transportation services of M&J pursuant to the Factoring Agreement or otherwise. True and correct copies of the unpaid invoices are attached and incorporated as Exhibit E.

40. M&J fully performed under its agreement with Amazon Logistics as to the invoices by transporting Amazon Logistics' freight, and Amazon Logistics' failure to pay MHC for the transportation of its freight by M&J constitutes a breach of contract.

41. Around July 29, 2019, MHC sent a letter to Amazon Logistics. The letter stated Amazon Logistics was in default on its account and demanded payment, and is attached and incorporated as Exhibit F.

42. On August 7, 2019, MHC again notified Amazon of its obligation to pay MHC directly for all accounts receivable attributed to M&J.

43. Amazon Logistics has not paid the balance in response to MHC's demand.

47. Upon successful verification of the account receivable, MHC would purchase it from RSA and collect the full amount from Amazon Logistics.

48. Amazon Logistics first remitted payment directly to MHC for RSA accounts on May 3, 2019.

49. Since that time, Amazon Logistics has failed to pay MHC for some of the transportation services of RSA pursuant to the Factoring Agreement or otherwise. True and correct copies of the unpaid invoices are attached and incorporated as Exhibit G.

50. RSA fully performed under its agreement with Amazon Logistics as to the invoices attached as Exhibit F by transporting Amazon Logistics' freight, and Amazon Logistics' failure to pay MHC for the transportation of its freight by RSA constitutes a breach of contract.

FACTORING SERVICES AGREEMENT

THIS FACTORING SERVICES AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and entered into as of the 5/8/2019 by and between MHC Financial Services, Inc., a Missouri corporation ("Purchaser"), and Jose Ramos DBA M&J Logistics ("Client").

In consideration of and for the mutual covenants herein contained and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Purchaser and Client agree as follows:

1. Purchase of Accounts. Client agrees to sell, assign, transfer and convey to Purchaser all of its existing and future accounts receivable arising from services performed in the regular course of Client's business; i.e., any right to payment from any party for services rendered by or on behalf of Client (the "Accounts"). Client shall present all Accounts to Purchaser for purchase, with recourse, and Purchaser shall determine, in its sole discretion, which Accounts it deems acceptable for purchase. Purchaser may elect to purchase such Accounts it deems to be acceptable, in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof, and Client shall sell, assign, transfer and convey such Accounts to Purchaser. Client agrees to sell, assign, transfer and convey all of its Accounts to Purchaser, regardless of whether Client fails to present any of such Accounts to Purchaser for purchase as required hereunder. Client shall execute and deliver to Purchaser a Bill of Sale and Assignment, in the form attached hereto as EXHIBIT A, which shall vest in Purchaser all of Client's right, title and interest in said Accounts, together with any undercharges, securities and/or guarantees thereon. Client shall retain all original paperwork related to the Accounts (i.e., bills of lading, unloading receipts and other documentation supporting the Accounts) until the termination of the Agreement. Client shall be required to produce original paperwork upon request to Purchaser within 2 business days.

2. Purchase Price; Base Fee. The purchase price for each Account purchased by Purchaser hereunder shall be the net amount of such Account, less PURCHASER's base fee, which fee shall be an amount equal to 3.0 % of such net amount (the "Base Fee"). For purposes of the foregoing, the "net amount" of an Account means the gross amount/face value of the Account less any discount or allowance of any nature offered or provided to the person or entity obligated to pay the Account ("Account Debtor"). Upon presentation by Client to Purchaser of an acceptable invoice for an Account approved for purchase by Purchaser (along with all supporting documentation for such Account, including bills of lading, rate confirmation, loading receipts and any other documents substantiating the Account), and provided that no claim or dispute shall then exist with the Account Debtor with respect to the Account, Purchaser will advance to Client the purchase price of the Account, less a security reserve equal to 1.0 % of the net amount of the Account, with a minimum reserve amount of 0.0 . Following Purchaser's receipt of full payment of the invoice for the Account from the Account Debtor, and provided Client shall not otherwise be in default in any respect under this Agreement, Purchaser will remit to Client the security reserve, less any Late Fees pursuant to Section 5 hereof, any other amounts owed by Client to Purchaser, and any and all shipping charges and transactional fees as set forth on EXHIBIT B attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference, in complete and full payment for the Account. Purchaser will account for all Accounts and security reserves separately, but the parties expressly acknowledge and agree that Purchaser will aggregate the security reserves for all Accounts purchased from Client hereunder, and, with respect to those Accounts which Purchaser has received full payment, and provided Client shall not otherwise be in default in any respect under this Agreement, shall remit such security reserve balances in excess of the minimum reserve requirement (less the applicable deductions, fees and charges), if any, to Client no more frequently than on a monthly basis upon requests from Client, without interest, in full payment for the applicable Accounts, provided also that Client's Account Debtors shall be current on all payments as determined by the applicable invoice/payment terms of each Account. In the event Client's security reserve balance becomes negative, Purchaser may deduct amounts from future purchases to offset the deficit security reserve or, upon demand by Purchaser, Client shall immediately pay to Purchaser the full amount of the deficit.

3. Notice to Account Debtors. Client will notify each Account Debtor of the sale of its Account or Accounts to Purchaser and shall place a clear statement or legend, approved by Purchaser, on each such Account invoice, bill of lading, purchase order or statement, stating that such Account has been sold and assigned, and is payable to Purchaser at 11120 Tomahawk Creek Parkway Leawood, KS 66211, or at such other address as Purchaser shall designate in writing. Such notices shall be in the form attached hereto as EXHIBIT C. All remittances received by Client for payment of Accounts sold to Purchaser are the property of Purchaser, and Client shall hold such proceeds in trust for Purchaser, and shall immediately deliver to Purchaser, in the identical form, all payments received by Client on each such Accounts, together with all documents accompanying the remittance to Client. Client guarantees the timely payment of the monies and amounts represented by the assigned Accounts. Client agrees that it will not attempt to direct any payments on Accounts purchased hereunder other than to Purchaser.

4. Power of Attorney. Client does hereby irrevocably make, constitute and appoint Purchaser as its attorney-in-fact with full power and authority to act in its stead for the following purposes: (a) invoice or bill for, collect, receive, and deposit to Client's and/or Purchaser's bank accounts any and all amounts which may be due or become due to Client from Account Debtors, and to use Client's name for purposes of billing and collection of any and all amounts due from Account Debtors; (b) receive, accept, open, dispose of and redirect any and all mail addressed to Client; (c) negotiate any checks received in payment of Accounts whether payable to Client or Purchaser or both, and endorse the name of Client on any checks or other evidences of payment or other instruments or documents that may come into the possession of Purchaser on Accounts purchased by Purchaser and on any invoices or other documents or instruments relating to any of the Accounts or relating to any collateral or security hereby granted by Client to Purchaser; (d) in Client's name, or otherwise, demand, make claim for, sue for, collect, grant extensions, compromise, discharge, and get or give releases for any and all monies or funds due or to become due on the Accounts; (e) execute and deliver receipts or acknowledgements to Account Debtors for such amounts due which shall be binding upon Client and Purchaser; (f) notify Account Debtors of the sale of Accounts to Purchaser and notify and instruct Account Debtors, in Client's name, of the address and procedures for making payments on any Accounts that are sold to Purchaser or which constitute collateral hereby granted by Client to Purchaser; (g) take all steps necessary to ensure payment of such amounts and monies due, and do any and all things in Client's name necessary or proper to carry out the purposes intended by this Agreement; (h) file financing statements and all amendments thereto, describing as collateral any or all of the collateral described in Section 6 hereof by any description Purchaser deems appropriate in any jurisdiction or office Purchaser deems appropriate to perfect its security interest in the collateral described in Section 6 hereof; (i) initiate debit or credit entries through the Federal Reserve Automated Clearing House System (ACH) to any deposit account maintained by Client or Purchaser wherever located in order to satisfy any obligations of Client to Purchaser under this Agreement; and (j) make claims under any applicable cargo insurance policy held by or on behalf of Client for any cargo loss, damage, theft, delay or injury to cargo, and direct the insurance proceeds to pay any outstanding amounts due to Account Debtors or Purchaser as a result of the loss, destruction or damage. It is understood that this power of attorney is coupled with an interest, and is irrevocable until all obligations of Client to Purchaser under this Agreement have been satisfied. Exercise of the foregoing powers shall be in the sole and absolute discretion of Purchaser, but Purchaser shall have no obligation to exercise any of the foregoing powers. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall in any way require Purchaser to initiate or become a party to any litigation or other legal proceedings. Purchaser shall not, under any circumstances, or in any event whatsoever, have any liability for any error, omission or delay of any kind occurring in the collection, payment or settlement of any Account or of any instrument received in full or in part payment thereof or in dealing with any lien, security or guaranty of any such Account. To facilitate Purchaser's ability to exercise the power of attorney with respect to insurance policy claims as described in item (j) above, Client shall execute and deliver to Purchaser an Insurance Power of Attorney, in the form attached hereto as EXHIBIT D, which shall grant to Purchaser all of Client's right, power and authority to make claims under Client's cargo insurance policy.

However, Purchaser has purchased certain credit insurance to insure against certain failures of certain Account Debtors to satisfy the payment Accounts purchased by Purchaser ("Credit Insurance"). To the extent Purchaser chooses to file a claim with the insurer issuing the Credit Insurance, and Purchaser actually receives the amount it is entitled to recover under such Credit Insurance (up to the limit of such Credit Insurance), Accounts of such Account Debtor purchased by Purchaser shall be deemed non-recourse. If Client breaches any warranty or otherwise violates or defaults on any of its obligations hereunder, or if Purchaser reasonably determines at any time that any Account purchased by Purchaser hereunder is uncollectible, or if any Account purchased by Purchaser hereunder is not paid in full within 90 days after the Account invoice date, then upon request by Purchaser, Client shall immediately repurchase such Account(s) from Purchaser for an amount equal to the net amount of such Account(s), less any payments received by Purchaser on such Account(s) from the Account Debtor(s). Further, Client expressly acknowledges and agrees that the Base Fee pursuant to Section 2 hereof shall increase to % if an Account invoice remains unpaid after days, and shall increase again to % if an invoice remains unpaid for an additional day period.

Further, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Purchaser may terminate this Agreement without cause by providing Client with at least 30 days prior written notice thereof. Expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement shall not affect, waive or release the rights and obligations of the parties hereunder with respect to any Accounts purchased by Purchaser prior to such expiration or termination, and Client shall remain liable to Purchaser for all amounts and monies as may be owed to Purchaser under the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Upon termination, any security reserve, and any other funds or monies from any source whatsoever which Purchaser would otherwise owe to Client, may be retained by Purchaser until such time as all obligations and debts of Client to Purchaser have been fully satisfied, and Purchaser's security interest provided in Section 6 hereof shall continue until all obligations of Client to Purchaser are paid in full. FACTORING SERVICES AGREEMENT

THIS FACTORING SERVICES AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and entered into as of the 4/24/2019 by and between MHC Financial Services, Inc., a Missouri corporation ("Purchaser"), and RSA Industries ("Client").

In consideration of and for the mutual covenants herein contained and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Purchaser and Client agree as follows:

1. Purchase of Accounts. Client agrees to sell, assign, transfer and convey to Purchaser all of its existing and future accounts receivable arising from services performed in the regular course of Client's business; i.e., any right to payment from any party for services rendered by or on behalf of Client (the "Accounts"). Client shall present all Accounts to Purchaser for purchase, with recourse, and Purchaser shall determine, in its sole discretion, which Accounts it deems acceptable for purchase. Purchaser may elect to purchase such Accounts it deems to be acceptable, in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof, and Client shall sell, assign, transfer and convey such Accounts to Purchaser. Client agrees to sell, assign, transfer and convey all of its Accounts to Purchaser, regardless of whether Client fails to present any of such Accounts to Purchaser for purchase as required hereunder. Client shall execute and deliver to Purchaser a Bill of Sale and Assignment, in the form attached hereto as EXHIBIT A, which shall vest in Purchaser all of Client's right, title and interest in said Accounts, together with any undercharges, securities and/or guarantees thereon. Client shall retain all original paperwork related to the Accounts (i.e., bills of lading, unloading receipts and other documentation supporting the Accounts) until the termination of the Agreement. Client shall be required to produce original paperwork upon request to Purchaser within 2 business days.

2. Purchase Price; Base Fee. The purchase price for each Account purchased by Purchaser hereunder shall be the net amount of such Account, less PURCHASER's base fee, which fee shall be an amount equal to 3.0 % of such net amount (the "Base Fee"). For purposes of the foregoing, the "net amount" of an Account means the gross amount/face value of the Account less any discount or allowance of any nature offered or provided to the person or entity obligated to pay the Account ("Account Debtor"). Upon presentation by Client to Purchaser of an acceptable invoice for an Account approved for purchase by Purchaser (along with all supporting documentation for such Account, including bills of lading, rate confirmation, loading receipts and any other documents substantiating the Account), and provided that no claim or dispute shall then exist with the Account Debtor with respect to the Account, Purchaser will advance to Client the purchase price of the Account, less a security reserve equal to 0.0 % of the net amount of the Account, with a minimum reserve amount of 0.0 . Following Purchaser's receipt of full payment of the invoice for the Account from the Account Debtor, and provided Client shall not otherwise be in default in any respect under this Agreement, Purchaser will remit to Client the security reserve, less any Late Fees pursuant to Section 5 hereof, any other amounts owed by Client to Purchaser, and any and all shipping charges and transactional fees as set forth on EXHIBIT B attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference, in complete and full payment for the Account. Purchaser will account for all Accounts and security reserves separately, but the parties expressly acknowledge and agree that Purchaser will aggregate the security reserves for all Accounts purchased from Client hereunder, and, with respect to those Accounts which Purchaser has received full payment, and provided Client shall not otherwise be in default in any respect under this Agreement, shall remit such security reserve balances in excess of the minimum reserve requirement (less the applicable deductions, fees and charges), if any, to Client no more frequently than on a monthly basis upon requests from Client, without interest, in full payment for the applicable Accounts, provided also that Client's Account Debtors shall be current on all payments as determined by the applicable invoice/payment terms of each Account. In the event Client's security reserve balance becomes negative, Purchaser may deduct amounts from future purchases to offset the deficit security reserve or, upon demand by Purchaser, Client shall immediately pay to Purchaser the full amount of the deficit.

3. Notice to Account Debtors. Client will notify each Account Debtor of the sale of its Account or Accounts to Purchaser and shall place a clear statement or legend, approved by Purchaser, on each such Account invoice, bill of lading, purchase order or statement, stating that such Account has been sold and assigned, and is payable to Purchaser at 11120 Tomahawk Creek Parkway Leawood, KS 66211, or at such other address as Purchaser shall designate in writing. Such notices shall be in the form attached hereto as EXHIBIT C. All remittances received by Client for payment of Accounts sold to Purchaser are the property of Purchaser, and Client shall hold such proceeds in trust for Purchaser, and shall immediately deliver to Purchaser, in the identical form, all payments received by Client on each such Accounts, together with all documents accompanying the remittance to Client. Client guarantees the timely payment of the monies and amounts represented by the assigned Accounts. Client agrees that it will not attempt to direct any payments on Accounts purchased hereunder other than to Purchaser.

4. Power of Attorney. Client does hereby irrevocably make, constitute and appoint Purchaser as its attorney-in-fact with full power and authority to act in its stead for the following purposes: (a) invoice or bill for, collect, receive, and deposit to Client's and/or Purchaser's bank accounts any and all amounts which may be due or become due to Client from Account Debtors, and to use Client's name for purposes of billing and collection of any and all amounts due from Account Debtors; (b) receive, accept, open, dispose of and redirect any and all mail addressed to Client; (c) negotiate any checks received in payment of Accounts whether payable to Client or Purchaser or both, and endorse the name of Client on any checks or other evidences of payment or other instruments or documents that may come into the possession of Purchaser on Accounts purchased by Purchaser and on any invoices or other documents or instruments relating to any of the Accounts or relating to any collateral or security hereby granted by Client to Purchaser; (d) in Client's name, or otherwise, demand, make claim for, sue for, collect, grant extensions, compromise, discharge, and get or give releases for any and all monies or funds due or to become due on the Accounts; (e) execute and deliver receipts or acknowledgements to Account Debtors for such amounts due which shall be binding upon Client and Purchaser; (f) notify Account Debtors of the sale of Accounts to Purchaser and notify and instruct Account Debtors, in Client's name, of the address and procedures for making payments on any Accounts that are sold to Purchaser or which constitute collateral hereby granted by Client to Purchaser; (g) take all steps necessary to ensure payment of such amounts and monies due, and do any and all things in Client's name necessary or proper to carry out the purposes intended by this Agreement; (h) file financing statements and all amendments thereto, describing as collateral any or all of the collateral described in Section 6 hereof by any description Purchaser deems appropriate in any jurisdiction or office Purchaser deems appropriate to perfect its security interest in the collateral described in Section 6 hereof; (i) initiate debit or credit entries through the Federal Reserve Automated Clearing House System (ACH) to any deposit account maintained by Client or Purchaser wherever located in order to satisfy any obligations of Client to Purchaser under this Agreement; and (j) make claims under any applicable cargo insurance policy held by or on behalf of Client for any cargo loss, damage, theft, delay or injury to cargo, and direct the insurance proceeds to pay any outstanding amounts due to Account Debtors or Purchaser as a result of the loss, destruction or damage. It is understood that this power of attorney is coupled with an interest, and is irrevocable until all obligations of Client to Purchaser under this Agreement have been satisfied. Exercise of the foregoing powers shall be in the sole and absolute discretion of Purchaser, but Purchaser shall have no obligation to exercise any of the foregoing powers. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall in any way require Purchaser to initiate or become a party to any litigation or other legal proceedings. Purchaser shall not, under any circumstances, or in any event whatsoever, have any liability for any error, omission or delay of any kind occurring in the collection, payment or settlement of any Account or of any instrument received in full or in part payment thereof or in dealing with any lien, security or guaranty of any such Account. To facilitate Purchaser's ability to exercise the power of attorney with respect to insurance policy claims as described in item (j) above, Client shall execute and deliver to Purchaser an Insurance Power of Attorney, in the form attached hereto as EXHIBIT D, which shall grant to Purchaser all of Client's right, power and authority to make claims under Client's cargo insurance policy.

5. Late Fees; Full Recourse. All Accounts purchased by Purchaser from Client are purchased with full recourse including Purchaser's right to require Client's repurchase of Account(s) as set forth in this Section 5. However, Purchaser has purchased certain credit insurance to insure against certain failures of certain Account Debtors to satisfy the payment Accounts purchased by Purchaser ("Credit Insurance"). To the extent Purchaser chooses to file a claim with the insurer issuing the Credit Insurance, and Purchaser actually receives the amount it is entitled to recover under such Credit Insurance (up to the limit of such Credit Insurance), Accounts of such Account Debtor purchased by Purchaser shall be deemed non-recourse. If Client breaches any warranty or otherwise violates or defaults on any of its obligations hereunder, or if Purchaser reasonably determines at any time that any Account purchased by Purchaser hereunder is uncollectible, or if any Account purchased by Purchaser hereunder is not paid in full within 90 days after the Account invoice date, then upon request by Purchaser, Client shall immediately repurchase such Account(s) from Purchaser for an amount equal to the net amount of such Account(s), less any payments received by Purchaser on such Account(s) from the Account Debtor(s). Further, Client expressly acknowledges and agrees that the Base Fee pursuant to Section 2 hereof shall increase to % if an Account invoice remains unpaid after days, and shall increase again to % if an invoice remains unpaid for an additional day period.

The incremental increases in the Base Fee described above in this Section 5 shall be referred to herein as "Late Fees". Any security reserve held by Purchaser for such Account shall be released only in accordance with Section 2 hereof, and Purchaser shall, in any event, be entitled to and shall retain its Base Fee and all Late Fees for the Account as set forth herein.

6. Security Interest. Client hereby grants to Purchaser as collateral, to secure all of the debts, liabilities and obligations of Client to Purchaser under this Agreement, including all costs and expenses incurred by Purchaser in connection with the enforcement of its rights under this Agreement, a continuing security interest in the following property of Client: (a) all Accounts, wherever located or situated, and whether now existing or arising in the future, and whether now owned or at any time in the future acquired by Client; all guaranties and security for such Accounts; all of Client's rights and interest in the goods giving rise to such Accounts, and the rights associated with or related or pertaining to such goods, including without limitation the right of stoppage in transit and any and all related insurance, any items substituted therefor as replacements and all additions thereto; (b) all of Client's chattel paper, instruments, general intangibles, securities, contract rights, associated with or related to the Accounts; (c) all proceeds of any of the foregoing Accounts, and all rights and interests and monies due or becoming due on such Accounts; and (d) all other personal property in which Client has an interest, now or hereafter existing or acquired, and wheresoever located, tangible or intangible, including, but not limited to, all present and hereafter existing or acquired vehicles, equipment, tools, goods, inventory, furniture, fixtures, contract rights, chattel mortgages, deeds of trust, stocks, bonds, certificates of deposit, bank accounts, security deposits, intellectual property and other general intangibles. Upon request by Purchaser, Client shall execute a Security Agreement in a form provided by Purchaser evidencing the foregoing security interest. Purchaser may file financing statements and amendments thereto describing as the collateral any or all of the foregoing collateral by any description Purchaser deems appropriate in any jurisdiction or office Purchaser deems appropriate to perfect its security interest in foregoing collateral. In the event of Client's breach of any warranty made in this Agreement, Client's failure to observe or perform any of the provisions or obligations of this Agreement or Client's (including Client's affiliates) default of any other written agreement with Purchaser or Purchaser's affiliates as defined in section 17 of the Agreement, Client shall be in default, and Purchaser may enforce payment and exercise any and all of the rights and remedies provided by Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code. In addition, upon default by Client, Purchaser shall also have the right to take all actions necessary to collect the Accounts directly from the Account Debtors. Without limiting the foregoing, Client agrees that if Client fails to present any of Client's Accounts to Purchaser for purchase as required hereunder, then Client shall be in default and shall owe to Purchaser liquidated damages for such default in an amount equal to the Base Fee which would have otherwise been payable hereunder with respect to such Account(s).

7. Personal Guaranty; Background Check. To induce Purchaser to enter into this Agreement and to purchase the Accounts from Client, and as additional security for all of the debts, liabilities and obligations of Client to Purchaser under this Agreement, one or more owners of Client shall execute the Personal Guaranty form attached hereto as EXHIBIT E, pursuant to which said owner(s) shall unconditionally guaranty the obligations of Client under this Agreement. Such owner(s) must also consent to a personal credit check and comprehensive background investigation.

8. Term and Termination. The term of this Agreement shall commence as of the day and year first above written, and shall continue for an initial term of one year. Thereafter, this Agreement shall automatically renew for additional consecutive one year terms, unless either party provides the other party with written notice of its intent not to renew at least 90 days prior to expiration of the then current term. Notwithstanding the stated term hereof, Purchaser may terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice thereof to Client in the event Client breaches this Agreement or in the event of the insolvency of Client or the filing of a petition in bankruptcy by or against Client. Further, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Purchaser may terminate this Agreement without cause by providing Client with at least 30 days prior written notice thereof. Expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement shall not affect, waive or release the rights and obligations of the parties hereunder with respect to any Accounts purchased by Purchaser prior to such expiration or termination, and Client shall remain liable to Purchaser for all amounts and monies as may be owed to Purchaser under the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Upon termination, any security reserve, and any other funds or monies from any source whatsoever which Purchaser would otherwise owe to Client, may be retained by Purchaser until such time as all obligations and debts of Client to Purchaser have been fully satisfied, and Purchaser's security interest provided in Section 6 hereof shall continue until all obligations of Client to Purchaser are paid in full. Purchaser shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to set off against the security reserve and any other sums owing to Client by Purchaser all obligations and

Re: $136,769.90 owed by Amazon Logistics, Inc. ("Amazon") to MHC Financial Services Inc. ("MHCFS")

Dear Sir or Madam:

This law firm represents MHCFS. We are contacting you with respect to approximately 180 unpaid invoices owed by Amazon to MHCFS for the transportation services provided by RSA Industries LLC ("RSA") to Amazon. We are also contacting you with respect to approximately 180 unpaid invoices owed by Amazon to MHCFS for the transportation services provided by Jose Ramos dba M&J Logistics ("M&J"). The unpaid invoices total $72,422.64 with respect to RSA's services and $64,347.26 with respect to M&J. We have enclosed a statement on both accounts for your reference.

As you may know, MHCFS entered into a Factoring Services Agreements (the "Factoring Agreement") pursuant to which MHCFS purchased the above described invoices and RSA and M&J each assigned its right to collect on the invoices to MHCFS. Amazon was notified of RSA's assignment in writing on approximately April 30, 2019 and was also notified of M&J's assignment in writing on approximately May 21, 2019 (the "Notice of Assignments"). Enclosed with this letter are the respective Notice of Assignments. Amazon acknowledged the assignments and has paid MHCFS directly in the past on many RSA and M&J invoices. Yet the invoices at issue remain unpaid by Amazon.

It has come to our attention that RSA and M&J may have contacted Amazon in an attempt to circumvent MHCFS's rights to collect on the invoices under the Factoring Agreements. We also understand that one or both of RSA and M&J may have requested Amazon not comply with the Notice of Assignments and pay the outstanding invoices directly into the accounts of RSA and/or M&J.

MHCFS has not waived or released any of its rights to collect on the invoices , has not terminated, waived or released its rights and RSA and M&J obligations under the Factoring Agreements, and hereby is once again putting Amazon on notice of the assignments of the invoices and its obligation to pay the amounts directly to MHCFS. All Notices of Assignment concerning MHCFS are in full force and effect until you are notified otherwise in writing by

Clerk of the District Court, Johnson County Kansas

SEIGFREID BINGHAM

MHCFS. Any unauthorized attempt or request by RSA and/or M&J to have Amazon pay the invoices directly to RSA, M&J or any third party should be ignored and would be a breach of RSA and M&J's obligations under the Factoring Agreement. Furthermore, please understand that if Amazon ignores or does not comply with the Notice of Assignments, it will be liable to MHCFS for any amounts Amazon pays instead to RSA or M&J. Uniform Commercial Code § 9-406(a) requires you to pay MHCFS on receipt of a notice of assignment, and bars you from discharging any debt by paying the carrier instead.

Accordingly, MHCFS hereby requests that Amazon make payment in full of the invoices owed to MHCFS as Amazon has done in the past. Please contact the undersigned or Chaz Rumage at 816-242-6233 or Chaz.Rumage@MHC.com, to arrange for such payment. If you have any questions at all, or if anything in this communication is unclear to you in any way, please contact the undersigned at your earliest convenience. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Mark U. Opara
Attorney for MHC Financial Services Inc.
