RE: AAA Cooper Transportation Proof of Claim in New England Motor Freight Inc. Bankruptcy, Case number 19-12809 (JKS)

AAA Cooper Transportation (AACT) has conducted business with New England Motor Freight (NEMF) over the last 20 years, which is the longest interchange carrier relationship for AACT as well as the highest volume. Both AACT and NEMF are regional transportation providers with AACT servicing primarily the southeast portion of the US and NEMF servicing primarily the northeast portion of the US. Through interchange agreements with one another, AACT and NEMF can provide transportation services to their customers beyond their service areas. In a transportation service where AACT subcontracts with NEMF on behalf of AACT customer, AACT will invoice their customer for the entire length of the transportation service and will pay NEMF for their portion of the transportation service.

AACT's proof of claim of $395,094.50 is comprised of two categories:

1) AACT transportation services totaling $311,568.73 for NEMF subcontracting with AACT to move freight in AACT's service area on behalf of NEMF customer(s). See attached document titled "AACT Transportation Services due from NEMF" for detail by invoice (31 pages).
2) Damage and shortage claims totaling $83,525.77 for AACT subcontracting with NEMF for a transportation service on behalf of AACT customer(s) where NEMF lost or damaged the customer's freight. AACT is liable to its customers for the claims but is reimbursed by NEMF if the damage or shortage occurred in their possession of the freight. See attached document titled "AACT Damage and Shortage Claims due from NEMF" for detail by shipment number (3 pages).

Additional detail for both categories has previously been sent to NEMF and is available upon request to any party at a reasonable expense, due to the size of the documentation. For additional detail, please contact Tiffany Engelhuber at tiffany.engelhuber@aaacooper.com or 334.836.8545.

AACT also has unpaid balances due to NEMF for transportation services and shortage/damage claims, which is under review with NEMF to reconcile outstanding payables due to AACT. The transportation services due to NEMF occur when AACT subcontracts with NEMF to move freight in NEMF's service area on behalf of one of AACT customer(s). The shortage and damage claims occur when NEMF subcontracts with AACT for transportation services on behalf of NEMF customers where AACT lost or damaged the customer's freight. When amounts are finalized, AACT believes these amounts should be eligible to right of setoff against proof of claim total.

AACT may need to amend the proof of claim in the future, should additional customers file damage or shortage claims on transportation services where the damage or shortage occurred during NEMF's possession of the customer's freight. It is common practice in the less than truckload transportation industry to provide customers 9 months from delivery or estimated delivery date to file damage or shortage claims.

Thank you for your review of this proof of claim.
