Ralph,

I don't see where we were ever provided the new address and authorization for the reconsignment and marking/tagging. Also, there is the question of the $25.00 per day storage charges that are also due. We will need authorization for that as well.

Please advise.

Thanks again,

We have a completed contract for a storage unit and will receive the unit # later today, at latest tomorrow morning. Myself or Jeremy Olson will provide the delivery address asap.

Thanks for you patience.

Hi Michael,

YRC would give you the answer to that question. They always tell me how much it is to reconsign.

Joy would be able to tell you.

Hi Ralph,

These costs need to be approved by the production team (Tania) as these will come out of our budget.

Joy,

Before these can be approved please advise costs, minimum is is $25 a day what is the maxim?

Ralph, we also need a firm ship date that these will be accepted into the new storage, not an open ended next week timeline before we can accept the charge.

Stacey,

what would be the cost to return to IMS and resend out when the team is ready to receive?

thanks!

Hi Joy,

I approve the additional daily charge of $25/day and understand this to be the maximum price per day for holding this shipment item. I will provide new delivery details asap.

Thanks,

Team, Unfortunately, we most likely won't have access to the storage unit until next week. The best solution may be to hold at YRC until this time next week.

Joy, what is the daily cost to hold the pallet at your facility?

All,

Normally we would not hold a shipment for this length of time without it accruing storage charges. If we are able to get this delivered by Friday, I will waive the storage for this week. I will need a letter of authority from IMS advising the address to which this shipment needs to be reconsigned and who will be responsible for the additional reconsignment and marking/tagging charges. Please also provide a good contact and phone number for the new location.

Thanks so much,

Joy Lee

Ralph,

Please provide updated address for the storage unit for delivery.

Stacey,

Per below delivery (Cherise Picou (tracking #: 7784420900))

Can we please hold this until Friday 10/26 to the updated storage unit?

thanks!

Jeremy & Ralph,

Please see below.

Cherise received a call today about a pallet delivery (100+ lbs.). She asked the freight company to hold off until the storage units are in place. They said the delivery date is between 9 AM and 5 PM and someone needs to be home to sign for the delivery, which would take her out of the field for an entire day.

Ralph, will you be able to reroute the delivery to the storage unit if they can hold it until then?

I appreciate your help!

Thank you,

Hi Chris,

I just got a call regarding a freight delivery. She said that I would need to be there to sign for the delivery tomorrow between 9-5. I asked her to hold off until the storage units were available so it could be directly shipped there. She said once we had the storage unit that the shipper would need to call and change the delivery address.
